

Nashville Union.

POST.—We are informed by persons from the country that there was considerable frost Sunday and yesterday morning. Fires were quite comfortable both mornings in town.

FURNITURE SALE.—The sale of elegant household furniture of Mrs. P. Hays, takes place this morning at half past nine o'clock, at her residence south of the Post Office. Bidders will take notice.

RECORDS.—Disposed of yesterday—drunkenness and disorderly conduct being the principal offenses.

WHENEVER there is a meeting of a public character to be held, of which a notice is expected in the public prints, editors should be notified in advance. Will our Union friends remember this?

SEE, TUESDAY.—This establishment opened last night under favorable auspices. The performances to-night begin with a favorite farce, and close with the interesting drama of "Dick Turpin." Mr. Miles appearing as the renowned highwayman.

LIGHT colored cassimere are to be the rage among masculines the coming fall season. In order to be ready for the demand Messrs. Green & Green are in the field with a full stock of young gent's light cassimere caps. They are just the thing for an evening walk.

THEATRE.—The entertainments at the theatre open to-night with the "French Spy," admirably cast. Mr. Christie appearing as the Spy. After the play, dancing by the Zastrowski troupe, and songs by Mr. Stewart. The performances close with the afterpiece of "The Windmill," in which Mr. C. L. Allen appears as the Marquis. Mr. Everett as Sampson Lowe; Mr. Ashton as Peter; Mrs. Jordan as the Marchioness; and Mrs. Bernard as Marion.

The French Spy was produced last night in the most attractive manner, and was received with unbounded applause. Mr. Christie was very happy in her representation of the three characters in which she was cast. She has few, if any equals, in these parts, and no superior. We have no doubt that there will be an immense audience out to see her tonight.

A FIRST POTATO.—We received last evening a specimen of the sweet potato crop of Dr. A. J. Roper, living on the Nashville Pike. It is the largest we have seen this season, weighing two pounds, and a little over.

A citizen was arrested on Broad street yesterday, whilst entertaining some ladies with his views upon the suppression of the rebellion. He was of the opinion that the attempt would prove a failure. A few days on bread and water may improve his judgment.

A Correction.

LAVENEX, Tenn., Aug. 29, 1863.

Editor of the Union: Having seen in today's Press that there was five Confederate soldiers captured by the 105th Ohio V. I., I take this method of correcting the mistake; first there were six instead of five, secondly, they were not captured by the 105th O. V. I., (as there is no such regiment at this place) but by a detachment of the bold 10th O. V. I., Company A. B. H. and I, under the command of the bold Major Thayer.

Service, Company I, 10th, O. V. I.

The Provost Marshal General has also decided not to allow credit for volunteers raised since June 18, 1863, in districts where the draft has taken place, but in districts where the drawing has not been commenced credit will be given for recruits sent to regiments in the field, and for volunteers enlisted in companies which may have been raised in such districts and mustered into the service of the United States between the 11th day of June, 1863, and the day preceding that fixed for the draft to take place. Men merely enlisted will not be credited. They must be mustered into some organized company.
